

sinclair's decision to broadcast the anti-Kerry documentary throughout the swing states 2 weeks before the election is an outrage. There is no way that this documentary can be considered as news worthy....it is simply a political commercial for Bush and should be treated as such. The FCC's decision to allow Sinclair to air this broadcast is also an outrage. It's ironic that they intervened quickly in the janet jackson and howard stern cases but refuse to do so when the election of the President of the United States is at stake. Hopefully, Sinclair's advertisers will protest this unjust decision to force local stations to broadcast this anti-Kerry documentary commercial-free and pull their ads accordingly. Congress should also act and act quickly! Sinclair should be forced to pay for the broadcast as a political commercial or Kerry should be given equal time on these stations to get his message out.
